JOINT STATEMENT FROM DESTINY CHURCH AND CAPITAL CHRISTIAN CENTER ON OFFICIAL COLLABORATION

Destiny Christian Church and Capital Christian Center share over 130 years of ministry in the Sacramento region. We have the same heartbeat to preach the Gospel, teach Biblical truth, and give people hope.

A couple months ago, Pastor Rick Cole and Pastor Greg Fairrington began to dialogue about a formal ministry collaboration. Our priority has always been about the stability, unity, and health of the ministry.

Today, we are united in announcing that the board of directors of both congregations have agreed to proceed with the hope of Capital Christian Center joining the Destiny Church family. Pastors Greg and Kathy Fairrington are fully committed to supporting and building upon the great success of Capital Christian Center and Capital Christian School during this time of transition.

Together, Destiny and Capital have impacted the Sacramento region. We have a legacy of loving people, serving people, and providing people an encounter with the presence of God. Over the past few years, Capital has experienced a destabilization of its financial foundation. Collaborating with Destiny, and uniting under their spiritual leadership, provides the necessary financial and spiritual strength to continue its impact in the region for decades to come.

There are many logistics, questions, and approvals to work out in the coming days – and we will keep you updated on our progress.

We are excited for what is next and look forward to a future of fruitful ministry . . .

With Love,

Greg Fairrington, Lead Pastor
Destiny Christian Church

Rick Cole, Lead Pastor
